Attempted break-in at IAF Paris office handling Rafale procurement

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, May 22

IN A SUSPECTED case of espionage, there was an attempted break-in on Sunday at the Indian Air Force's Paris office which is overseeing production of 36 Rafale fighter jets for India, military sources said.

A group of unidentified persons broke into the office of the IAF's Rafale project management team in the suburbs of Paris and local police are probing whether the attempt was to steal classified data relating to the aircraft, they said.

"As per initial assessment, no data or hardware have been stolen. The local police are investigating the incident," said a source.

Sources said the IAF has briefed the defence ministry about the incident and that the Indian mission in Paris has been in touch with French authorities. The IAF's office of Rafale project management is located at the complex of Dassault Aviation, the makers of the Rafale jets.

There was no official reaction from either the defence ministry or the IAF about the incident.

Sources said stealing of any data relating to the weapons package or avionics of the Rafale jets may have serious implications.

The IAF project management team is headed by an IAF Group Captain and it comprises two fighter pilots, one logistics officer and a number of weapons experts and engineers.

The team is coordinating with Dassault Aviation on manufacture of Rafale jets as well as on weapons package onboard the aircraft.
